RESPONSE TO MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE DOCUMENTS IN SPANISH AND REQUEST TO SHORTEN OBJECTION NOTICE

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

COMES NOW the Debtor, Las Martas, Inc., through the undersigned counsel, and responds to the Motion for Leave to File Documents in Spanish and Request to Shorten Objection Notice.

There is a reason that this Court requires documents to be filed in English, and it is not just for appeals. This Court functions in English. And its attorneys do not necessarily speak Spanish. In fact, while the undersigned can read and speak some Spanish, I cannot read much of the documents at issue attached to Condado’s Motion for Relief from Stay. Debtor will suffer prejudice if his counsel cannot read the attachments to the motion.

It is also presumptuous of Condado to file a “MOTION FOR ENTRY OF ORDER GRANTING “MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE DOCUMENTS IN SPANISH AND REQUEST TO SHORTEN OBJECTION NOTICE” AS UNOPPOSED” after requesting but not receiving an Order shortening the response deadline. Unless the Court acts to shorten the deadline, the deadline to respond is that in the Rules, not that unilaterally set by Condado. In fact, this response is not only timely, it is early.

. WHEREFORE, Debtor respectfully requests that the Motion for Leave to File Documents in Spanish and the “Motion for Entry of an Order... as Unopposed” be denied,

Respectfully submitted,
